THE MONTH IN 30 SECONDS

Your Google ads brought 159 leads this month for $1,203: 96 calls from the call button on your ads, 40 taps on the phone number on your website, 22 home-search sign-ups and 1 contact request. Phone taps held steady, up from 38 last month and in line with the 40 to 41 of a usual month. Total leads were below last month's 222 and the 270 to 271 of a usual month, mostly in calls from your ads and home-search sign-ups. Each click cost more, so about the same spend bought 1,960 clicks instead of 2,434. Next, we recommend a quick test sign-up and contact form, a word from you on rental and guest-services searches, and new ad wording to help your ads show on more searches.

WHAT WE CHANGED THIS MONTH The account's change history shows 1 edit between September 9 and October 1, the stretch Google keeps on record, so the first days of September are not covered. We do not read this month's numbers as the result of that edit, and from the coming month this spot will also show where each recommendation below stands.

LEADS

Leads - 159 this month, with phone taps on your website holding at 40

A lead is someone who reached out or signed up after clicking your ad: a call from the call button on your ad, a tap on the phone number on your website, a home-search sign-up or a contact form. Your ads brought 159 for $1,203, against 222 last month and 270 to 271 in a usual month, so each lead cost $7.57, against $5.48 last month.

ALSO HAPPENED, NOT COUNTED AS LEADS

15 Email List Subscribe

- Calls from your ads: 96, against 128 last month and 163 to 164 in a usual month. They kept coming after the month closed, most recently on October 6 (not counted here).
- Phone taps on your website: 40, up from 38 last month and in line with a usual month. A tap shows someone meant to call; it does not show whether the call connected.
- Home-search sign-ups: 22, against 54 last month and 63 to 64 in a usual month. They kept coming in, most recently on October 6.

- Contact requests are rare: 1 this month, none since September 18, and an earlier quiet stretch ran 28 days, June 13 to July 10. Separately, 15 email-list sign-ups came in, the same as last month; we keep those apart from leads.

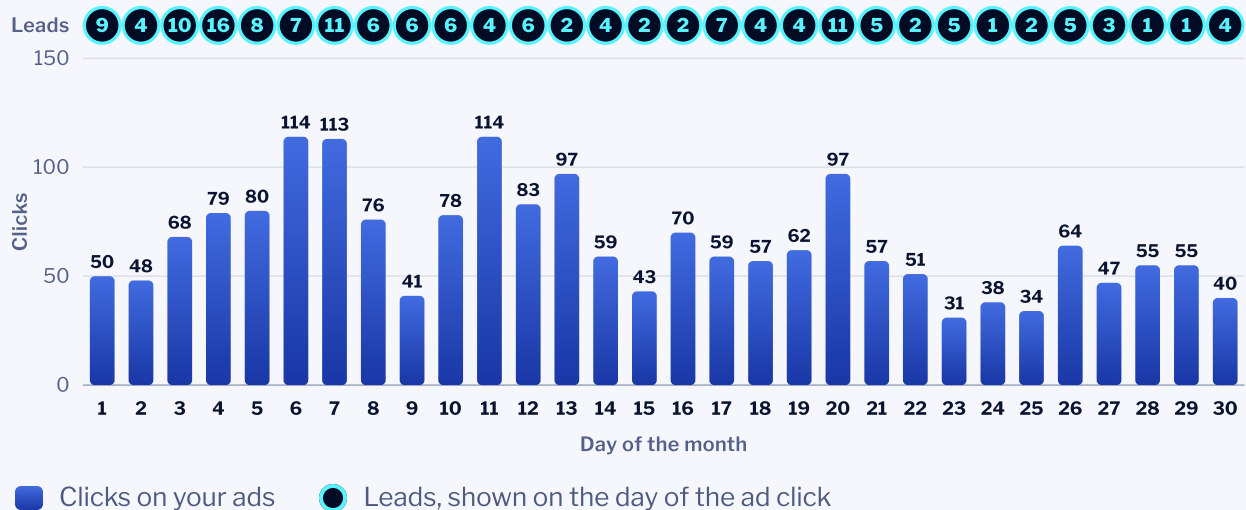

What this means for you

Phone taps held steady while calls from your ads and home-search sign-ups came in lower. A quick test sign-up and contact form will confirm both are still being counted, so we know the dip is real before we change anything.

CLICKS AND COST

Clicks - 1,960 for $1,203, as each click cost more

You spent $1,203, about the same as last month's $1,216. Clicks cost more on both campaigns, so the same spend bought 1,960 clicks, against 2,434 last month and 2,647 in a usual month.

- Cinnamon Shore Awareness: each click cost $0.62 on average, against $0.52 last month and $0.48 in a usual month.
- Cinnamon Shore Home Search: each click cost $0.61 on average, against $0.48 last month and $0.44 in a usual month.
- Of all clicks, 8.1% became a lead, against 9.1% last month and 10.2% in a usual month.
- Your ads sent 1,991 visits to your website, against 2,536 last month. Visits are counted on your website and clicks in Google Ads, so the numbers differ.

What this means for you

Your budget spent as planned; it simply bought fewer clicks this month. We will keep watching click costs in the coming month before suggesting any change.

SEARCH ADS

Cinnamon Shore Awareness - 981 clicks and 80 leads, with a higher click rate

Search ads appear when someone types what they want into Google. Your Cinnamon Shore Awareness ads drew 981 clicks and 80 leads for $608, against 99 leads last month. Their click rate rose to 17.4%, from 16.7% last month, above the usual 17.2%.

Where people were when they clicked

Cinnamon Shore Awareness (Google search ads)

Nueces County		320 clicks
Travis County		123 clicks
Bexar County		107 clicks
Harris County		88 clicks
Williamson County		32 clicks
Dallas County		31 clicks
Comal County		26 clicks
Kendall County		24 clicks

- Where they showed: on 30% of the searches they qualified for, the same as last month and up from 22% over June to August.
- What held them back: they missed 46% of qualifying searches because the ad ranked too low, down from 56% over June to August, and 24% because the $20 daily budget ran out. Google sets ad rank from the bid and from how useful the ad and its page look.
- Where people were: 320 of 973 clicks came from people in Port Aransas (33%); the campaign is set to show across Texas.

What this means for you

These ads showed on a larger share of searches than over the summer. We are not recommending a bigger budget; the clearer next step is ad wording that helps them rank higher, as we recommend below.

SEARCH ADS

Cinnamon Shore Home Search - 979 clicks and 79 leads; low ad rank is the main limit

Your Cinnamon Shore Home Search ads drew 979 clicks and 79 leads for $595, against 1,262 clicks and 123 leads last month. Their click rate was 21.6%, against 22.8% last month and 24.6% in a usual month.

- Where they showed: on 26% of the searches they qualified for, the same as last month.
- What held them back: they missed 56% because the ad ranked too low and 18% because the $20 daily budget ran out.
- These ads brought 15 of the month's 22 home-search sign-ups, and 337 of 975 clicks came from people in Port Aransas (35%).

What this means for you

The biggest room to grow here is ad rank, not budget. New ad wording, tested within the current budget, is the next thing to improve, as we recommend below.

WHAT PEOPLE SEARCHED

Searches - 99% of the clicks Google shows came from searches naming Cinnamon Shore

Google shows the search words behind 83% of your clicks (1,622 of 1,960). Of those, searches naming Cinnamon Shore drew 1,610 clicks and about 130 leads for $979. They come from people who already know the name, so we count them as people looking for you, not new demand.

Google shows the search words for 83% of clicks (1,622 of 1,960); the groups above describe those clicks. Searches for the team by name: 99%. They come from people who already know you, so they are kept out of the groups above.

- Searches that turned into leads included "cinnamon shore homes for sale", "cinnamon shore condos for sale" and "houses for sale in cinnamon shores".
- Some leads followed searches for rentals or guest services, such as "cinnamon shores rentals" and "cinnamon shore guest services", which may come from people looking for a stay rather than a home to buy.
- Searches for homes that did not name Cinnamon Shore, such as "homes for sale in port aransas tx", drew 6 clicks and no leads. None of the 130 visible leads came from a search naming a place outside your home market.

What this means for you

Your ads reliably catch people searching for Cinnamon Shore by name. A word from you on rental and guest-services searches tells us whether to screen them out, as we recommend below.

WHAT WE RECOMMEND NEXT

Recommendations for the coming month

1

Run a quick test sign-up and contact form

QUICK CHECK

We recommend that our team make one test home-search sign-up and send one test contact form on your website in the coming month. If both reach your team and are counted, the lower sign-up count is real and we look at the ads. If either is not counted, we fix how it is recorded first. Your team would see test leads from us, named BLOK Test.

2

Screen out rental and guest-services searches, if they are not for you

SEARCH WORDS

If your team does not handle rentals or guest services, we recommend screening out searches such as "cinnamon shores rentals" and "cinnamon shore guest services", a few at a time, and stopping if phone taps or calls from your ads fall. This may mean slightly fewer leads at first, with more of the same budget going to people searching for homes.

3

Test new ad wording to help your ads rank higher

AD WORDING TEST

We recommend testing new ad wording on both campaigns, built around the homes-for-sale searches that already turn into leads, within the current $20 a day each. Your Home Search ads missed 56% of qualifying searches because they ranked too low, so this is the next thing to improve, though no ranking change can be promised.

4

Keep watching click costs and calls from your ads

KEEP WATCHING

We recommend no other change for now, and keeping watch in the coming month on the average cost per click, $0.62 and $0.61 this month, and on calls from your ads.

What we need from you this month

1. A yes to the test sign-up and test contact form (recommendation 1).
2. A word on rentals and guest services: does your team handle these calls? Your answer tells us whether to screen those searches out (recommendation 2), and we will not start without your go-ahead.

PLAIN-ENGLISH GLOSSARY

Lead

Someone who, after clicking your ad, called from the ad's call button, tapped the phone number on your website, signed up on your home search or sent a contact form. Email-list sign-ups are kept separate.

Phone tap

A tap on the phone number on your website from a phone. It shows someone meant to call, not whether a call connected or how long it lasted.

Click rate

The share of times an ad showed in search results that someone clicked it.

Call from an ad

A call placed straight from the call button on your Google ad.

Home-search sign-up

A visitor created an account on the listings search on your website, usually to save homes or get new-listing alerts. An early buyer signal, not a request to talk.

A usual month

The average of June, July and August. It keeps one unusually busy or quiet month from setting the bar.
