THE MONTH IN 30 SECONDS

Clicks cost less this month: $4.68 each on your Local Services ads, against $6.42 in a usual month, and $0.56 on Neighborhood Match, which drew 821 clicks, above a usual month's 790. Your Local Services ads brought all 6 leads, phone leads at $116 each, against 7 last month and 12 to 13 in a usual month, and the ads were shown less often than usual. Home Value clicks fell to 185 from 300, and neither Performance Max campaign has recorded a lead since June 1. In all you spent $1,605, against $2,606 in a usual month. Next, we recommend checking the 6 against your Local Services lead list and a quick test request on each Performance Max campaign.

WHAT WE CHANGED THIS MONTH Your account's change history shows 46 edits between September 9 and October 1. Google keeps this history for a limited time, so it does not cover the start of the month, and it does not show that any one edit moved the numbers below. From next month, this spot will also show where each recommendation below stands: done, waiting on you, or dropped.

LOCAL SERVICES

Local Services ads - 6 phone leads for $697, with clicks at $4.68

Your Local Services ads show at the top of Google results and were the only campaign to record leads this month. They brought 6 phone leads for $697, $116 per lead, against 7 leads for $768 last month and 12 to 13 leads for $1,348 in a usual month.

- Showings and clicks: the ads were shown 1,270 times and clicked 149 times, against 1,409 and 157 last month and 1,627 and 210 in a usual month.
- Cost and click rate: each click cost $4.68, against $4.89 last month and $6.42 in a usual month, and 11.7% of showings led to a click, up from 11.1% last month, against 12.9% in a usual month.
- Clicks to leads: 4.0% of clicks became a lead, against 4.5% last month and 6.0% in a usual month. 1 message also came through the ads, counted apart from leads.
- Phone leads kept coming after the month closed, most recently on October 6 (not counted here), and 46 have come in since June 1.

What this means for you

Clicks got cheaper, but the ads were shown less often and fewer clicks became leads. The 6 here are what Google Ads recorded; your Local Services lead list is the full record and may show more.

NEIGHBORHOOD MATCH

Neighborhood Match - 821 clicks at $0.56 each, no recorded lead

Neighborhood Match is a Performance Max campaign, which shows your ads across Google, and we report it as one campaign. It drew 821 clicks for $457, against 851 last month and 790 in a usual month, and each click cost $0.56, down from $0.67 last month and $0.75 in a usual month.

- Showings: 73,147, against 80,298 last month and 76,552 in a usual month, and 1.1% of showings led to a click, the same as last month.
- Leads: none this month and none recorded since June 1. The account counts a Neighborhood Match Request as a lead.
- Interest on your Google listing tied to this campaign: 57 other taps such as photos and reviews, against 26 last month and 57 in a usual month, and 11 taps through to your website. These are not leads.

What this means for you

These ads bring low-cost clicks to your website, but none has turned into a recorded request since June 1. A quick test request will show whether requests are being recorded.

LEADS

Leads - 6 this month, against 7 last month and 12 to 13 in a usual month

A lead is someone who reached out after an ad, counted from the lead actions the account tracks. This month all 6 were phone leads through your Local Services ads. Across the account, each lead cost $268, against $266 last month and $206 in a usual month.

ALSO HAPPENED, NOT COUNTED AS LEADS

- 76 taps on your Google Business Profile (the box with your photos and reviews on Google Search and Maps)
- 45 YouTube follow-on views
- 28 visits to your website from your Google listing
- 1 Local services message lead

- This is the lowest monthly lead count, and the highest cost per lead, of the full months since June 1, when the lead history begins.
- Out of all clicks, 0.5% became a lead, the same as last month, against 0.9% in a usual month.
- Not counted as leads: 1 message through your Local Services ads (3 in a usual month), 76 other taps on your Google listing (77 in a usual month) and 28 taps from your listing through to your website (32 in a usual month).

What this means for you

Leads came only from Local Services this month. Checking that count against your Local Services lead list gives the full picture.

HOME VALUE

Home Value - 185 clicks, down from 300, no recorded lead

Home Value is also a Performance Max campaign. It drew 185 clicks for $451, against 300 last month and 288 in a usual month, and each click cost $2.44, up from $1.75 last month and $2.01 in a usual month.

- Showings: 50,571, against 71,600 last month and 88,225 in a usual month, and 0.4% of showings led to a click, the same as last month.
- Leads: none this month and none recorded since June 1. The account counts a Home Valuation Completion as a lead.
- Interest on your Google listing tied to this campaign: 10 taps through to your website and 3 other taps. These are not leads.

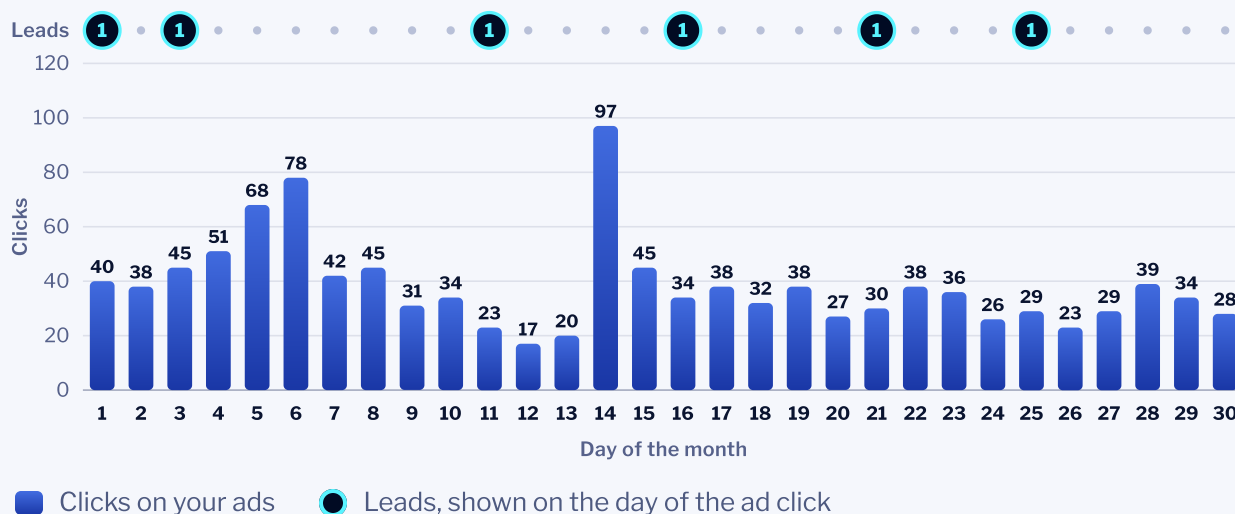

What this means for you

Fewer showings and higher click costs this month. Before changing the ads, we want to confirm that a home-value request on your website is recorded.

SPEND AND CLICKS

Spend - $1,605 this month, against $2,606 in a usual month

Your ads drew 1,155 clicks for $1,605, against 1,309 clicks for $1,859 last month and 1,366 clicks for $2,606 in a usual month. All of it went to Local Services, Neighborhood Match and Home Value.

- Local Services spent $697, against $1,348 in a usual month. Neighborhood Match ($457) and Home Value ($451) each spent less than in a usual month.

- Your YouTube video and Demand Gen campaigns, including Wellington Reserve, showed no ads and spent $0.00 this month. Wellington Reserve spent $0.49 last month.
- The chart shows spend, clicks and leads day by day. Leads are dated by the day of the ad click.

What this means for you

Most of the gap with a usual month was on Local Services, where spend, showings and leads were all lower.

WHAT WE RECOMMEND NEXT

Recommendations for the coming month

1

Check your Local Services lead list

QUICK CHECK

We recommend comparing the 6 phone leads Google Ads recorded in September with your Local Services lead list, which is the full record of calls and messages. While there, we would check that your Local Services profile hours and service area are current, as the ads were shown less often than in a usual month.

2

Run a test request on Neighborhood Match and Home Value

QUICK CHECK

We recommend that our team make a test Neighborhood Match request and a test home-value request on your website in the coming month. If each is recorded, these campaigns are bringing visitors who are not ready to ask yet, and we look at the ads next. If not, we fix how requests are recorded first. Your team would see a test lead from us for each, named BLOK Test.

3

Watch Home Value clicks and click cost

KEEP WATCHING

We recommend no change to Home Value yet and watching its clicks and cost per click in the coming month, against 185 clicks at $2.44 each this month. If they stay down after the test request, we recommend testing new home-value ad wording within the current budget.

What we need from you this month

1. A yes to the test requests on your website.
2. Your September lead count from your Local Services lead list, or access for us to view it.

PLAIN-ENGLISH GLOSSARY

Lead

Someone who reached out after an ad, counted by the lead actions your account tracks. This month every lead was a phone lead through your Local Services ads. Taps on your Google listing are counted separately.

Performance Max

A Google campaign type that shows your ads across Google. We report each one as a whole.

Click rate

Out of all the times an ad was shown, the share that led to a click.

Local Services phone lead

A phone call that came through your Local Services ad, which Google charges as a lead.

Showings

Times an ad was shown. Also called impressions.

A usual month

The average of June, July and August. It keeps one unusually busy or quiet month from setting the bar.
